My {brief} story

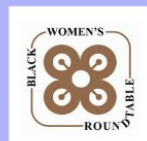

Start Here

Program & Product Development:

I can help you or your organization create specific workshops, sessions, events, curriculum, and the corresponding training materials. If you have the idea, outline, or vision I can help bring it to life, through Creative Problem Solving Sessions, research & focus groups, product development, and trainings

Some organizations I've worked for are:

Program & Product Development

Project Management

Too much on your plate, too many things to do and not enough time? I can help with that through project & event coordination, data input, social media management, and flyer, logo, and meme creation.
